Dear Secretary

You must be aware that acceptance of awards without prior approval of the Government is a violation of the Conduct Rules. The acceptance of awards attracts the provisions of Rule 14 of the Central Civil Services (Conduct) Rules, 1972 and the instructions issued there under. The provisions of Rule 14 provide that a Government servant shall not, except with the previous sanction of the Government, receive any complimentary or valedictory address, or accept any testimonial or attend any meeting or entertainment held in his honour or in the honour of any other Government servant.

2. However, it has been noticed that some officers have accepted awards in the past from the non-Governmental organisations without the prior approval of the Government. I am directed to caution you against acceptance of any award in future without prior sanction of the Government. Acceptance of awards without the prior approval of the Government will be viewed adversely. The officers in your Ministry/Department and attached and subordinate offices may be apprised of this.

Yours Sincerely,

(K. M. Chandrasekhar)
